

Anthemis punctata subsp. cupaniana

COMMON NAME

Sicilian chamomile

FAMILY

Asteraceae

AUTHORITY

Anthemis punctata subsp. cupaniana (Tod. ex Nyman) R.Fern.

FLORA CATEGORY

Vascular – Exotic

STRUCTURAL CLASS

Herbs - Dicotyledonous composites

CONSERVATION STATUS

Not applicable

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Herbaceous (somewhat woody at base);decumbent stems rooting at nodes and with ascending tips; foliage silvery; flower heads 6 cm diameter with white rays, yellow disc.

FLOWER COLOURS

White, Yellow

PROPAGATION TECHNIQUE

Rooted pieces; cuttings

ETYMOLOGY

anthesis: Greek name for the chamomile

punctata: From the Latin punctatus 'dotted', referring to a patten of small round dots

MORE INFORMATION

<https://www.nzpcn.org.nz/flora/species/anthemis-punctata-subsp-cupaniana/>

