

Bocconia frutescens

COMMON NAME

Plume poppy

FAMILY

Papaveraceae

AUTHORITY

Bocconia frutescens L.

FLORA CATEGORY

Vascular – Exotic

STRUCTURAL CLASS

Trees & Shrubs - Dicotyledons

CONSERVATION STATUS

Not applicable

FLOWER COLOURS

Cream, White, Yellow

FRUITING

October to February

YEAR NATURALISED

2013

ORIGIN

Central and South America (northern portion)

REASON FOR INTRODUCTION

Ornamental

ETYMOLOGY

frutescens: From the Latin frutex 'shrub', meaning 'becoming shrubby'

NZPCN FACT SHEET CITATION

Please cite as: Ogle, C. (Year at time of access): Bocconia frutescens Fact Sheet (content continuously updated). New Zealand Plant Conservation Network. <https://www.nzpcn.org.nz/flora/species/bocconia-frutescens/> (Date website was queried)

MORE INFORMATION

<https://www.nzpcn.org.nz/flora/species/bocconia-frutescens/>

Planted shrub in 'Paloma Gardens' Fordell, Whanganui. Photographer: Colin C. Ogle, Date taken: 13/11/2023, Licence: Public domain.

Planted shrub in 'Paloma Gardens' Fordell, Whanganui. Photographer: Colin C. Ogle, Date taken: 13/11/2023, Licence: Public domain.