

Campsis xtagliabuana

COMMON NAME

Campsis

FAMILY

Bignoniaceae

AUTHORITY

Campsis xtagliabuana (Vis.) Rehder

FLORA CATEGORY

Vascular – Exotic

STRUCTURAL CLASS

Lianes & Related Trailing Plants - Dicotyledons

CONSERVATION STATUS

Not applicable

FLOWER COLOURS

Red/Pink

LIFE CYCLE

Perennial woody vine. Sterile hybrid - seed not formed, Vegetative by stolons and/or rhizomes. Does not form viable seed. Vegetative spread, usually from carelessly discarded garden waste

YEAR NATURALISED

1991

REASON FOR INTRODUCTION

Horticultural

TOLERANCES

Cold tolerant - deciduous. Shade tolerant but flourishes best in full sun. Can tolerate a wide range of situations, soils and moisture regimes.

MORE INFORMATION

<https://www.nzpcn.org.nz/flora/species/campsis-xtagliabuana/>

Close up of flower, Ex Cult., 31 Dec 2006, Mt Albert, Auckland. Photographer: Peter J. de Lange, Licence: CC BY-NC.

Foliage, Ex Cult., 31 Dec 2006, Mt Albert, Auckland. Photographer: Peter J. de Lange, Licence: CC BY-NC.