

APPENDIX 6 Common tree and shrub species planted on the Town Belt

The following list is restricted to those adventive plants that have been deliberately planted into or on the edge of scrub and forest communities and have not become naturalised. It does not include specimen trees that have been planted in borders or in expanses of mown grass.

- Abelia xgrandiflora*
- Acmena smithii*, lily pilly tree
- Agave americana*
- Alnus glutinosa*, alder
- Aloe arborescens*
- Araucaria heterophylla*, Norfolk Island Pine
- Betula pendula*, silver birch
- Callistemon citrinus*, bottlebrush
- Camellia japonica* cv., camellia
- Castanea sativa*, Spanish chestnut
- Cedrus deodara*, cedar
- Chamaecyparis lawsoniana*, Lawson's cypress
- Cotoneaster* spp., cotoneaster
- Cryptomeria japonica*, Japanese cedar
- Cupressus* sp., (? arizonica)
- Eucalyptus ficifolia*, scarlet-flowered gum
- Eucalyptus gunnii*
- Ficus carica*, fig
- Fuchsia magellanica* cv., fuchsia
- Lagunaria patersonii*
- Larix decidua*, European larch
- Pinus jeffreyi*, Jeffrey pine
- P. muricata*, Bishop pine
- P. nigra* ssp. laricio, Corsican pine
- Prunus xdomestica*, plum
- Pseudotsuga menziesii*, Douglas fir
- Racosperma verticillatum*, prickly Moses
- Robinia pseudacacia*, false acacia
- Salix babylonica*, weeping willow
- Ulmus xhollandica*, elm